Dear Sir,

With reference to your kind letter of the 30th ult: with respect to the old surgical instruments and appliances which you express your willingness to allow me to see, I shall be passing through York on Monday the 20th inst., and could call at the hospital between 3 and 3.30 on that afternoon if convenient to you. Will you kindly let me know if that is suitable, and if you could get them out for me to see at that time.

Thanking you in anticipation,

Faithfully yours,
