Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 5th inst., I am pleased to know that you have now got together a number of books relating to the subjects on early science of which we furnished you with a list. I am afraid it will be another couple of months before I am able to get up to Yorkshire again, so shall be glad, if it is not troubling you, if you will please send us a list as you suggest of them together with prices of same. We can then see if they are suitable, and I will take the earliest opportunity afterwards of coming up to run through them.

Thanking you,

Faithfully yours,

Mr. I. Symington.

24 March 1917.

Dear Sir,

Thanks for your p.c. I shall be glad if you will have all the books ready for me to look through on the morning of April 11th.

The other subjects besides medicine are surgery, alchemy, chemistry, pharmacy, botany, astrology, witch-craft, magic, herbals, books about Morocco, old pharmacopoeias, or prints, engravings or objects connected with any of these subjects.

Thanking you,

Dear Sir,

We received the parcel of books quite safely from you last week. When I saw you and spoke of further business in connection with books on the subjects which I chose, you said if I would send you a list of subjects, when looking through your stores you would select a good number out for me. If you are able to find a large number, it would be worth while for me to come up and look at them. We are wanting MSS. and books printed before 1800 on Medicine, Surgery, Botany, Chemistry, Pharmacy, Herbals, Cookery, Astrology, Veterinary Medicine, Recipes, Secrets, old Pharmacopoeia, portraits of physicians and surgeons, Vaccination, old surgical instrument makers' catalogues, and early books on travel in the east. When you can get together about a couple of hundred, I shall be glad if you will let us know.

Faithfully yours,
