D'ERLANGER, BARONESS EMILE

'16/'17

H.M.M. Official

8 May 1917.

Dear Madam,

My Museum assistants being all engaged on military service, I am trying to find a young gentlewoman whose tastes incline to things ancient and artistic, to train as an assistant in this Museum.

It has occurred to me that you might perhaps know of someone who would make an enthusiastic student of the objects we have here illustrating the history of medicine, and prove suitable.

Apologising for troubling you,

I am,

Faithfully yours,

C.J.S.T.

The Baroness Emile d'Erlanger,
Grand Pump Room Hotel,
Bath.

d'Erlanger.

H.M.M.

16 October 1916.

Dear Madam,

Please accept our very cordial thanks for so kindly presenting the Belgian Congo Medicine Man's costume to this Museum. We have not a similar specimen, and it will form a valuable addition to our collection.

It was indeed very kind of you to take so much trouble and send it along so promptly on Saturday. It arrived quite safely, and I hope the next time you are able to pay the Museum a visit, we shall have it in its place. I shall be only too pleased to show you anything that may interest you here any time you can conveniently call.

Assuring you of our appreciation of your kind gift,

I am,

Faithfully yours,

C.J.S.T.

Baroness Emile d'Erlanger,
Grand Pump Room Hotel,
Bath.

d'Erlanger.
