Dear Sir,

Please accept our cordial thanks for so kindly sending the enlargement of the excellent photograph you took of the tablet in the birth-house at Kom Ombo. It will form an interesting addition to the photographs we already have.

Dear Sir,

I now have the pleasure of enclosing an enlargement of the photograph I took of the Medical Instruments at Kym Embo, a smaller print of which I showed you the other day.

I also enclose a print of a photograph of the two rods referred to in the second paragraph of Mr. Wellcome's pamphlet.

THE HANLEY MUSEUM

which I thought might also be of interest to you

Yours faithfully

Dear Sir,

I am much obliged for your letter of yesterday and for the copy of the pamphlet enclosed.

I shall have much pleasure in sending you a print of the photograph I showed you the other day and which I hope to do in the course of a few days, as soon as I have had me done.

Thanking you for all the trouble you

Dear Sir

Yours faithfully

Dear Sir,

I must apologise to you for the error in forwarding you a copy of 'Decouvertes prehistoriques dans le Soudan meridional' instead of the pamphlet on the Birth-house of Kom-Ombos, which I enclose herewith.

Would you be so good as to let me have a print of the photograph you took of the cabinet of instruments at Kom Ombos which you showed me the other day; we should much like to have it to add to the collection in the Museum.

Apologising for the inconvenience caused you and thanking you in anticipation for the print.

I am,

Faithfully yours,

Trusting it will be of interest to you,

I am,

Dear Sir,

I am much obliged for your letter yesterday, I think however that some mistake has been made in enclosing the copy of the paper referred to in your letter.

The paper enclosed, which I now return, refers to excavations in the Sudan and not to the sculpture in the Punt House at Kumtoto.

Yours faithfully
