Dear Sir,

I enclose herewith, as promised, two copies each of the four Licences to Practice Surgery, etc. we took at the Lambeth Palace Library last week, a copy of each being for His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, and the others for yourself.

With many thanks for the trouble you have taken,

I am,

Faithfully yours,

S. W. Kershaw Esq.,

Dear Sir,

I am very much obliged for your letter of the 3rd inst. conveying to me the Archbishop of Canterbury's permission to photograph some of the "Licences to Practice Surgery" in the Library of Lambeth Palace. I will send the gentleman to photograph the same on Wednesday morning next, the 8th inst. shortly after 10 o'clock, if fine.

Again thanking you,

I am,

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir,

In reply to your postcard re my application to have a photograph made of some of the old licences for surgery in the Lambeth Palace Library I wish to show them at my forthcoming historical medical exhibition; they are not for publication. I should like to have the earliest that you have, which I believe is one granted to Henry Fyre in 1590 and another to John Gylden in 1581.

Thanking you in anticipation for an early reply,

I am,

Yours very truly,

The Librarian,

Dear Sir,

I am pleased to say,
to Author of Hunterbury
officers of some photographs
being taken here &
"Licences to practice Surgery"

The earliest appears to be 1580 in Author's Grindall's Register & there are some 16 licences in the same Register.

W. S. Wellcome Esq

Will you tell your photographer how many you require, or whether any later examples, the latest <sup>here</sup> being in AmM
Tennessee Register (1695-1716)

The work can be done on any day, or 9
Card enclosed, or during Library hours only.

Sincerely yours

Dear Sir,

Referring to your kind letter of last week with respect to the historical medical exhibition, I shall be glad if you will kindly let me know if I could have permission to photograph a few of the old licences to practice surgery that were granted by the Archbishop of Canterbury which you have among your registers in the Lambeth Palace Library. My photographer could photograph them in the Library without giving you any trouble.

Thanking you in anticipation,

I am,

Yours very truly,

The Librarian,
