Dear Sir John, My painter is progressing with the drawing of your Arms - I am desirous that the representations of the two Medals to be suspended therefrom should be quite correct and as I have a little doubt about them will you kindly let me have your Medals for my painter to make his drawing from - I have the Bath and Fife of Honour - it is only the two Silver medals I want.

With regard to your motto that selected by you I think My painter is drawing the Arms

5 Feb 1857

too long and indeed almost in the character of two in one - what I think goes to dividing it thus - "Perseverantia vincit" over the Crest of the Lock, and under the Aims

"Dat cura quietus"

I fancy this will meet your views - if you object to the two mottos then I would propose Perseverantia et cura quietus -

I am obliged to go to Windsor tomorrow (Friday) but you will find me here on Saturday - if you will send me the Medals with a line about the motto it will answer every purpose and I will take care and return you the Medals with the drawing in a day or two.

Sir,

I am directed by Secretary Major General Peel to transmit to you herewith one of the Turkish Crimean Medals recently received from the Ottoman Government for distribution to the British Army.

Country, and it has been decided to distribute them in the first instance to those in possession of the Crimean Medal granted by Her Majesty, who are now serving in the Army on full Pay. In accordance with this rule, your claim to one of these medals would have to be considered, whenever a further supply of them is received from the Turkish authorities; but Major General Peel is induced to make a special exception from this rule in your case, in consideration of your valuable services as Head of the entire Medical Service during the late War.

I am to request that you will acknowledge the receipt of this Medal.
