Dear Sir.

I regret the disappointing report on the last consignment. I thought that the two French pots would interest Mr. Wellcome & the Delft Jars are the same kind as I listed & that you wanted.

Enclosure amended etc & shall be glad to have the Delft Jars returned to me. I gave 2/6 for the French pots & will take 1/1 profit.

With compliments
Yours obed. J. Lawrence

Dear Sir,

I desire to thank you for sending me the old delft jars and bottles for Mr Wellcome's inspection. He wishes me to tell you that he has plenty of the delft jars at present of the kind you have sent and does not care for more unless they are of greater antiquity and something exceptional in form or colour.

With respect to the bottles, many of these are also too recent for his purpose, but he would be willing to give you 7/6 (seven shillings and sixpence) for the lot you have sent and 7/6 (seven shillings and sixpence) for the two old French Unguent pots. If this is agreeable to you will you kindly let me know and I will remit you Postal Order, or return the articles to you at once.

Dear Sir,

I have received a small box with your name and address on it, addressed to me for the Historical Medical Exhibition. When delivered this afternoon, the box was badly damaged and the contents missing. The box is endorsed by the Post Office authorities that it was found in the E.C. Post Office without contents. I should be glad if you would kindly let me know what the box contained when it left your hands, and I will investigate the matter by applying to the Post Office.

Yours very truly,

A. B. Walden Esq.,
Chemist,
Gorey,

Dear Sir,

I have shown Mr Wellcome the selection of curios you kindly sent down this morning, and he is willing to purchase them all. The only lot he takes exception to are the charms and Arab beads, the majority of which he thinks were never used for amuletic purposes, and could not offer you more than £1-0-0 (one pound) in taking the entire lot. If you agree to this he is willing to take all the things you sent, which amounts in all, including the amulets, to £3-0-0 (three pounds). I enclose herewith a cheque for that amount, and trust this will be satisfactory to you.

I note what you say re Lambeth drug pots and Mr Wellcome would like all that you can get at a reasonable price, and also the old bottles and any other antiquities in that line that you may come across. Kindly let me know when you meet with any curios of this kind.

Yours faithfully,

Mr Geo. F. Lawrence,
