B-2

Harrow.

6th February, 1909.

Dear Miss Thompson,

I have three or four coloured drawings I want doing in the old style, A. size, from photographs and crayon sketches that I have made, and I should be glad to know if you would be able to do them for me if I sent them to you, or shall I wait until you come to London? There is no hurry for a month or six weeks if you prefer to do them when you are in town.

Faithfully yours,

Dear Miss Thompson,

Many thanks for your letter. As soon as I am able to put together the photos and sketches, I will forward them to you with instructions. I note that you have a few sheets of drawing paper.

I am,

Faithfully yours,

Harrow.

5th April, 1909.

Dear Miss Thompson,

I owe you an apology for not writing you as promised, and sending you particulars of the photographs, but I have been exceedingly busy since then, and have not been very well.

It will be an excellent opportunity, I think, for you to do what I have ready while you are in London, and I shall be glad if you will call and see me at No. 60, Newman Street, Oxford Street, at the offices of Spworth & Co. on the second floor, to-morrow afternoon at 2.30. I shall then be able to hand you the drawings and sketches, and sufficient drawing paper for the purpose.

Faithfully yours,

February 11th, 1910.

Dear Miss Thompson,

Many thanks for your letter informing me that you will be in London next week. I much regret, however, that I have nothing in the art line to be executed at the present time, and I have discovered nothing lately in that way at the Museum.

I trust that you will have a pleasant vacation in Town, and that your brother's exhibition will be successful.

Believe me,

Faithfully yours,

Miss L.B. Thompson,
