7th July 1914.

Dear Sir / It is my wish to present all the Portraits that you receive to the Historical Medical Museum; the beautiful pencil drawing I am now sending was last Evening omitted somehow.
When I look the others.

I feel sure the Sketch will be much admired, and hope the others will be appreciated.
Yours very truly

Dear Sir,

In the absence of Mr. Wellcome who is at present in the Sudan, I have great pleasure in thanking you very much for the four portraits which will form a most interesting addition to our collection. I am sure Mr. Wellcome will be very pleased to hear of your kind gift.

Yours truly,

Y.G.S.

Secretary.
