

Photocopy of the appendix to The South African Campaign of 1879 by Mackinnon and Shadbolt, giving records of service of officers of the Army Medical Department and the Army Hospital Corps, and listing civilian surgeons who served in the war

Publication/Creation

c.1879

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/g73wgmz2>

License and attribution

You have permission to make copies of this work under a Creative Commons, Attribution, Non-commercial license.

Non-commercial use includes private study, academic research, teaching, and other activities that are not primarily intended for, or directed towards, commercial advantage or private monetary compensation. See the Legal Code for further information.

Image source should be attributed as specified in the full catalogue record. If no source is given the image should be attributed to Wellcome Collection.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

The South African Campaign of 1879

(by Mackinnon & Shadbolt)

RECORDS OF SERVICE.

367

ARMY MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

RANK.	NAME.	SERVICES.
Brigade Surgeon.	T. Tarrant, M.D.	Was appointed S. M. O. of Pearson's Column on its formation. After completing three field hospitals for the Column, established the Base Hospital at Herwen, and remained there till March, 1879. Was then appointed S. M. O. of the Relief Column, and, taking part in its advance, was present at the battle of Ginghilovo. Mentioned in despatches. Was afterwards S. M. O. of Crealock's Divis., remaining with it in that capacity till it was broken up. On returning from Zululand was appointed S. M. O. of the camp and convalescent station at Pine Town.
Surgeon-Major.	Ingham, W. J.	Was Senior Surgeon-Major in charge of the Field Hospital, Pietermaritzburg, Base of Operations Natal and Lower Tugela.
Surgeon-Major.	F. B. Scott, M.B.	Served on the personal Staff of Lord Chelmsford, and in medical charge of the Hd.-Qrs. Staff during the war. Was present at the battle of Ulundi. (Mentioned in despatches.)
Surgeon-Major.	Dudley, W. E.	Arrived at Durban in March, 1879, and was nominated to the medical charge of the 57th Regt. Was detained at Herwen Hospital to take charge during the absence of Surg.-Maj. Tarrant with the Relief Column. Received the sick from Etshowe and the wounded from Ginghilovo, remaining at Herwen until appointed M. O. of the Buffs. Subsequently acted as S. M. O. of all the forces on the Lower Tugela, and had charge of Fort Pearson Hospital. Was invalided home in July.
Surgeon-Major.	R. C. C. Hickson, M.D.	Was in medical charge at Cape Town in Nov., 1878. Volunteered, in May, 1879, for employment in the war, and proceeded via Durban to Newcastle to take charge of the depôt there. Was S. M. O. of the Utrecht District till the conclusion of the war.
Surgeon-Major.	Fitzmaurice, J.	Served in the first phase of the war with Pearson's Column. Was present at the battle of Inyezane, and was S. M. O. at Etshowe throughout the blockade. Afterwards had temporary charge of the Base Field Hospital on the Lower Tugela. Subsequently proceeded to Utrecht, and was in charge of the Base Field Hospital of the Flying Column at that station till the conclusion of the war.
Surgeon-Major.	J. A. Anderson, M.D.	Served during the war with the Flying Column. Was present at the battle of Ulundi in command of the bearer company of the Column, and in medical charge of the detachment of Artillery and Engineers. (Mentioned in despatches.)
Surgeon-Major.	W. C. Gasteen, M.B.	Served throughout the Zulu and Sekukuni campaigns as Secretary and Statistical Officer to the Surgeon-General of the Forces in the Field.

CIVILIAN SURGEONS.

NAME.	SERVICES.
Thrupp, J. G.	Was attached to the 1st Batt. 24th Regt., and was in charge of the Staff and Dept. during the first phase of the war. Was subsequently in charge of No. 1 Field Hospital of Glyn's Column.
G. E. Twiss, M.D.	Served first with Villier's force in the operations against Umbellini's brothers (being present at the encounter with the enemy at Emlahlanlelah), and subsequently with the K. D. G.'s and the Transvaal Field Force.
Dr. Apthorp, F. W.	Dr. Giles, B. F.	Dr. Hope, T. M.	Dr. Mansell, E. R.
Dr. Beresford, W. H.	Dr. Giles, G. M.	Dr. Illingworth, C. R.	Dr. Moir, J. H.
Dr. Boomer, J. Mc W.	Dr. Gill, J.	Dr. Jennings, E.	Dr. Mulligan, E. J.
Dr. Brannington, H. C.	Dr. Gordon, S. F.	Dr. Johnston, R. C.	Dr. O'Neill, J. G.
Dr. Bridwood, R. A.	Dr. Greer, T.	Dr. Jolly, R. W.	Dr. Reynolds, L. M.
Dr. Burton, J. R.	Dr. Gubbins, C. O. F.	Dr. Leslie, A.	Dr. Roberts, F. J.
Dr. Busby, A. R.	Dr. Hare, E. H.	Dr. Leslie, R. B.	Dr. Roe, C.
Dr. Cheyne, W. R.	Dr. Hartley, W. D.	Dr. Lewis, C. B.	Dr. Ryley, J. R.
Dr. Clubbe, C. P. B.	Dr. Hayes, T. E. D.	Dr. Linden, H. C.	Dr. Wilson, E. M.
Dr. Cobbin, W. J.	Dr. Heath, J. L.	Dr. McCrea, J. F.	Dr. Woods, A. A.
Dr. Duncan, A. S.	Dr. Hebb, R. G.	Dr. Macdonald, W. C. C.	Dr. Wood, R. E.
Dr. Garland, G. H.

The above-named officers of the Medical Department and Civilian Surgeons served in the war over a very wide extent of territory, performing much arduous and important duty with the troops in the field, on the lines of communication, and at the bases. The services of those whose names only are recorded have not reached the compilers of this work in time for insertion in this, its first, edition.

ARMY HOSPITAL CORPS.

RANK.	NAME.	SERVICES.
Lieut. of Orderlies. (Hon. Capt.)	Sylvester, H. J.	Served throughout the war as District Officer of Orderlies; as Actg. Adj. and Qr.-Mr. A. H. C. had charge of all Medical Stores in S. Africa, and was Direct Accountant to M. O. for hospital camp equipment used in the campaign. (Promoted Hon. Captain for services.)
Lieut. of Orderlies. (Hon. Capt.)	Gorman, L.	Embarked with the S. African expeditionary force in Feb., 1879, and served on the line of communication till the conclusion of the war, and throughout the Sekukuni campaign. (Mentioned in despatches; honorary rank of Captain.)
Lieut. of Orderlies.	McGreal, F.	Embarked for Natal in November, 1878, and served with the Field Force and on the lines of communication throughout the war.
Lieut. of Orderlies.	Johnson, H.	Embarked with the S. African expeditionary force in Feb., 1879, and served with the Field Force and on the lines of communication during the war.
Lieut. of Orderlies.	Pike, W.	Embarked for Natal in Feb., 1879 in command of a detachment A. H. C. Proceeded to join Newdigate's Divis. At Landman's Drift, taking over the equipment and stores of the Base Hospital at Ladysmith, and establishing a Field Hospital at Dundee en route . On reaching Hd.-Qrs. formed two movable field hospitals for infantry and cavalry, and sent a third to Conference Hill. Took part, in charge of four field hospitals, in the advance of the Divis. into Zululand. Was present at the battle of Ulundi (horse killed at the commencement of the action). On the break-up of the Divis. was strongly recommended by the S. M. O. for promotion. Supplied movable field hospitals to Baker Russell's Column.
Lieut. of Orderlies.	McIntyre, D.	Landed at Durban in April, and was ordered to join Crealock's Divis. Subsequently joined the Flying Column at Utrecht, and was posted at the Base Field Hospital till the whole of the troops and stores were cleared out of Zululand. At the latter end of Oct. joined the Base Field Hospital of the Transvaal Field Force at Newcastle, and remained there till the break-up of the establishment.
Lieut. of Orderlies.	Cox, C. A.	Proceeded to Natal in Nov., 1878, and served with the Field Force and on the lines of communication throughout the war.
Lieut. of Orderlies.	Marshall, J. D.	} Proceeded to Natal with detachments in Feb., 1879, and served with the Field Force and on the lines of communication till the conclusion of the war. Lieut. Horn subsequently served with the Field Force in the operations against Sekukuni.
Lieut. of Orderlies.	Horn, J.	