Dear Sirs,

Yours to Hand. Your offer for the picture is very low indeed, but it is a subject which may lie on our hands for a long time. Make it £8, and whenever we pick up anything suitable, we will give you the first offer.

Yours Truly

Dear Sirs,

The oil portrait of Culpepper has now duly arrived, and we have given it a careful examination. It appears to us to have been very much touched up and restored, and we regret that we do not see our way to offer you more than £7. 7s. for it. If you are open to accept this offer, kindly let us know, and we will forward you a cheque by return of post.

yours faithfully,

To Messrs. C. & W. Th. Co.

Dear Sirs:-

We were unfortunate about that picture. We had half a dozen orders for it, but one gentleman, who had no intention of buying it at all, got hold of it, kept it as long as he liked, and then returned it. As £7 we would sell it at a loss, but being now in your possession we will let you have it for £7-15/- and its full worth.

Yours fflly
Thomas & Co.

P.S. If you do not press us down to a shilling or so, we will in future give you first opportunity with anything we might get in that line &c.

15th July, 1909.

Dear Sirs,

With reference to No. 217 in your catalogue, 'Portrait of Dr William Harvey, we shall be glad if you will kindly send this to us on approval, and we will pay carriage on same. Should it prove suitable, we hope to do business with you.

We are,

Faithfully yours,
