THE LIGHT SIDE OF SERIOUS WARFARE

Famous Footballers Under Arms and a Regimental Mascot.

THE R.A.M.C. (ALDERSHOT) v. THE H.A.C.

Our amateur footballers have rallied round the flag splendidly, as will be seen from the above photograph, which shows the R.A.M.C. (Aldershot Command) team which defeated the H.A.C. in a Rugby match at Richmond recently. All the five men sitting in the front row are internationals, namely, from left to right: L. G. Brown, A. C. Palmer, Lieutenant J. P. Quinn, J. C. Dower, and J. B. Minch. Several well-known players are amongst those in the back row: from left to right are:—Rambow, Sergeant McQuinn, L. B. Broster (Oxford), A. Friedlander, Major Stafford, W. Shaw, E. G. Greville (behind), C. S. L. Roberts, R. H. Williams, H. B. Whitworth, and R. A. Macgrath.

SATURDAY'S SPORT IN PHOTOGRAPHS.

(1 and 4) Messrs G. S. Wallington and J. A. Lord, winners of the high and long jumps respectively in the sports finals at Eton on Saturday. (2) The Aldershot R.A.M.C. football team which defeated the H.A.C. on Saturday at Richmond. In the front row are five Internationals: Messrs. E. G. Brown, A. C. Palmer, J. P. Quinn, J. C. Downes, and J. B. Minch. (3) H. Coverdale, the H.A.C. International, enjoying a lift "home" by a lusty player. (5) An incident in the game at Richmond. [S. & G., L.N.A., Topical.]

The Week-End Sports Of Our Soldiers In Training For The Front.

Watching another fight.

Which is the gentle R.A.M.C.—and which the Barbarians?

Hands up—too late.

An exciting game between the R.A.M.C. and the Barbarians at Richmond yesterday. (1) A Barbarian tackled, but in a most gentlemanly fashion; and (2) The Army in pursuit—in the whole-hearted style we expect of the men when they begin to tackle the Hun in May on the greater field of battle.

1. A try for the R.A.M.C. 2. The R.A.M.C. gets away after being neatly tackled. 3. The R.A.M.C. scores a try from a scrum in a corner.
ARMY RUGBY AT RICHMOND—THE R.A.M.C. (BOROUGHAM) BEAT THE H.A.C.

RED CROSS BEATS ARTILLERY.

An R.A.M.C. man scores near the corner flag. The Medical Corps (Aldershot) were much too good for the Honourable Artillery Company, at Richmond, yesterday, and defeated them by 15 points to nothing.

SOLDIER DOCTOR AND HIS BRIDE.

Lieut. C. B. Heald, M.D., of the R.A.M.C., and his bride, Miss Edith H. Mason. They were married at Hergham, Surrey, on Saturday.

R.A.M.C. TRAINING CENTRE.
 In the open mile relay race which the R.A.M.C. Training Centre included in their programme of sports on Twisel-down Racecourse, near Aldershot, yesterday, the 47th Canadian proved successful, thanks largely to their speedy quarter-mile, E. M. McBrian. They beat the 4th Divisional Engineers by 48 yards and the 136th Field Ambulance by 59 yards in 4 min. 15 1/2 sec. Other winners were Private Irvine (200 yards), Private Ashall (250 yards and hurdles), Private Maloney (half mile and mile), Private Bousher (high jump), Lieutenant Irvine (putting the weight), and Private Cowley (three miles). In the tug-of-war the 136th Field Ambulance beat W Company, and the mile relay went to the second section W Company.

ALDERSHOT'S "HARLEY STREET": COMFORTABLE NEW HUTS.

These pictures show men leaving after service in the half-crown stand, now converted into a church, and an orderly-room. The pad-dock stable stalls serve the purpose admirably. —(Daily Mirror photographs.)

The new wooden huts. They are lined with asbestos and lighted by electricity. —(Daily Mirror photograph.)

No more tents! The men are enjoying their first meal in their new quarters. —(Daily Mirror photograph.)

Three thousand men of the Royal Army Medical Corps are in training on Aldershot racecourse, and are using new and comfortable huts, Lord Kitchener's order being: "No tents after November 27." They call their quarters Harley-street.

WORK FOR GIRL TYPISTS

Girl making body belts for soldiers. Sir George Pragnell has formulated the scheme for finding work for typists at their homes.

A DUTCH "BOBBY."

Dutch policemen now have a uniform very like that of their London colleagues. The people call them "bobbies."

PRINCESS AS SEAMSTRESS.

Princess Margaretha, the thirteen-year-old niece of the King of Sweden, who is seen busily making garments for the Red Cross Society.

CLEANSES YOUR HAIR, MAKES IT BEAUTIFUL.

It becomes thick, wavy, lustrous, and all dandruff disappears.

Try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few minutes your hair will be renewed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful. You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 1s. 1½d. bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any chemist and try it as directed. —(Advt.)

Ven-Yusa is the cream for cream. It is unequalled if used daily to protect the skin and preserve its natural softness through the coldest weather.

DEAF NO LONGER.

Just think what that means to one who has been deaf. It means new life, new hope, renewed usefulness and happiness. No one need remain deaf since the invention of the "Auriphone," a tiny pocket telephone entirely British made and of great power, which magnifies the slightest sound to the desired degree, and simply makes the deaf hear. It is not possible here to mention the many advantages the "Auriphone" enjoys over other devices, so we ask all deaf readers to call at our offices for a free demonstration, with no obligation to purchase, or, if this is impossible, to send a card for our free illustrated booklet, which gives all particulars. — Auriphones, Ltd., 38, Walter House, Strand, W.C.—(Advt.)

HOW TO HAVE LONG BEAUTIFUL HAIR. BY A HAIR SPECIALIST.

It is not hard to stop the hair from falling out and promote its growth if the right means are used. There is no hope for the scalp where the hair roots are dead and the scalp is shiny. However, to those who have not reached this condition, immediate steps should be taken to stop it before it is too late. Here is a simple recipe which you can make at home, that will stop the hair from falling out, promote its growth and eradicate scalp eruptions and scalp humours. To a half-pint of water add 1 oz. bay rum, a small box of Orlex Compound and ½ oz. of glycerine, and apply to the hair, rubbing with the finger tips, two or three times a week. These ingredients can be obtained at any chemists at very little cost and mixed at home. This recipe not only promotes the growth of the hair, but darkens streaked, faded grey hair and makes it soft and glossy.—(Advt.)

"ONE OF THE MOST STRIKING EPISODES IN ANNALS OF OUR ARMY."

British Defence of Ypres Under Three Weeks' Rain of Shell.

PRUSSIAN GUARDS ARE HURLED BACK.

German Forces Prevented from Using Dixmude to Cross River Yser.

ALLIES NOW REPORTED AT GATES OF OSTEND.

"The centre of the struggle has been Ypres, the defence of which will certainly be reckoned in history as one of the most striking episodes in the annals of the British Army. How British troops are fighting with a gallantry and an indomitable spirit that nothing can subdue is revealed in an official statement issued last night in London. The battle for Calais has now lasted one month. Sacrificing thousands of lives and meeting appalling slaughter, the Germans have made a desperate effort to cut a way through the Allies' lines—but all in vain. That line remains unbroken. The British at Ypres—a position which projects like a bastion into the German lines—have withstood three weeks of almost incessant bombardment that was designed to pulverise the defence. Our men refused to be "pulverised," and the result indicated by last night's official French report is a new forward movement by the Allies. Our report, which is unconfirmed, states that a part of the Allied force is already at the gates of Ostend. It is true that Dixmude has been taken by the Germans, but the occupation is not complete. The Allies in great strength hold the line of the river, and they also hold on to the outskirts of Dixmude. Statements of the moving of German troops in contrary directions through Belgium are said to be due to the fact that wherever the German line has been weakened in order to reinforce troops against Russia a strong attack on that point has either forced the retreating troops to come back or has brought up others to take their places.

WAVES OF INFANTRY THAT BRITISH BROKE.

Continuous German Artillery Fire on Ypres—Capture of Six Guns.

The following official statement was issued in London last night:— Operations during the last few days have consisted mainly of heavy fighting to the north of the Yser, where the points of interest were at first on the line Hollebeke-Wytschaete-Messines. There were also severe encounters on the line Zandvoorde to Frelingheim. The character of the fighting has been one of frequent and vigorous infantry attack from the Germans, accompanied by heavy shell firing, alternating with equally vigorous counterattacks, the general result being the maintenance of our lines, but with still heavier loss on the other. Six machine guns and over 100 prisoners were taken by us on the 8th.

CONTINUAL BOMBARDMENT.

The Allies' strength has been constantly maintained by reinforcements. Latterly the stress has been in the neighbourhood of Ighelvelde, to the north of Ypres, and at Dixmude. The German artillery fire has been practically a continual bombardment, intended to pulverise the defence preparatory to the advance of infantry. The centre of the struggle has been Ypres, the defence of which will certainly be reckoned in history as one of the most striking episodes in the annals of the British Army. For more than three weeks that position, which projects like a bastion into the enemy's lines, has been held under a rain of shells which has hardly ceased by day or night. During this time the enemy have poured successive waves of infantry against it, only to see them break to pieces one after the other.

ALLIES AT OSTEND?

ROTTERDAM, Nov. 12.—The Germans are preparing defensive works on a considerable scale in the environs of Bruges and in the coastal region. They are also putting up large numbers of wooden foot bridges in place of the bridges destroyed by shells in the same region. The Allies are at the gates of Ostend. Several people who have succeeded in crossing the frontiers give assurances of having seen the Allies enter the town, which is stated to have been abandoned by the enemy.—Exchange Special.

KAISER AT BRUGES.

MAESTRICHT, Nov. 10.—The Germans have commandeered or purchased all the available horses still to be found in Flanders. These were sent towards Ghent and Brussels (excursion by canal). Nothing is spoken of here but the imminent retreat of the Germans. Everyone who has succeeded in crossing the frontier and all the emissaries from Berlin report a German movement towards the east. I learn to-day that measures have been taken at the frontier to prevent anyone from crossing in view of the arrival of the Kaiser at Bruges, which is hourly expected.—Exchange.

ENEMY THROWN BACK AT ALL POINTS.

Allies Hold Every Position and Repulse Night Attack From Dixmude.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—The official communiqué issued to-night says:— "To the north we have held our ground on all our positions. The enemy attempted to debauch from Dixmude by a night attack, but was repulsed. We have resumed the offensive against the enemy, who had crossed the Yser, and we have thrown him back at all points except in one place where he still holds from 200 to 300 yards of ground on the left bank. "In the centre we have gained some ground in the region of Tracy-le-Val, to the north-east of the forest of l'Aigle. "In the Argonne the very serious attacks of the Germans have led to nothing."—Reuter.

GERMAN GUNS CAPTURED.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—The following official communiqué was issued here this afternoon:— "On our left wing the action continued as violently as ever, and proceeded with alternate unimportant advances and retreats. "In a general way the battle front has not varied appreciably since the evening of November 10. "The battle front now runs along a line through Lombardzide, Wispert and the Nijpout Canal to Ypres, continuing from Ypres in the region of Zonnabeke and east of Armentières. "There has been no change in the positions held by the British Army, which has repelled the attacks of the enemy, and especially an offensive movement attempted by a body of the Prussian Guards. "From La Bassée Canal to the Oise there have been actions of small importance. "In the region of the Aisne, around the district of Vailly, we have maintained our positions in face of a counter-attack, and have obtained a firm hold on the ground previously recovered. "In the region of Craonne, at the farm of Heurtelbis our artillery succeeded in silencing the enemy's artillery, some guns even being destroyed. "We have also made some progress around Berry au Bac. "In the Argonne, in the Woëvre, in Lorraine and in the Vosges the respective positions of our forces and the enemy have not been modified."—Reuter.

NO CALAIS FOR KAISER.

CALAIS, Nov. 12.—It looks as though the Kaiser will have to resign himself to the possession of Zeelbrugge, and not Calais, as a point for his great invasion of England, and, unhappily for him, Zeelbrugge will remain in the occupation of his troops only just as long as the British Navy permits it. There has been a heavy and general pressure along the whole front to discourage the German General Staff from the idea that they can seriously weaken their lines here in order to deal more satisfactorily with the Russian attack. When our Eastern Allies are ready to continue their advance they will find the position on the western front quite satisfactory.—Central News.

READY TO LEAVE GHENT.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 12.—Considerable uneasiness is manifested at the German headquarters in Ghent, and preparations have been made in case of departure. It is reported that 100,000 soldiers have passed through the town, and the staff pretends that they are destined for Ypres, but since they come from the direction of Bruges and Ostend it is more probable that they are bound for Brussels. Central News.

BRITISH BEAR THE BRUNT.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—In competent circles here the capture of Dixmude by the Germans is not regarded as of serious military importance. "Advice indicates that the Allies have maintained their positions everywhere on the canal, and nowhere have the Germans succeeded in making a hole in the lines. "The situation is considered good. "It should be noted that, according to the latest reports, the Germans still continue to direct their most furious assaults against the British, who have to bear the brunt of the enemy's effort.—Reuter's Special.

3,000 DEAD IN 10 MINUTES.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—A wounded officer testifies to the ferocity of the battle raging on the Yser. North of Ypres the Germans delivered on the 4th their most furious assault. Some trenches were taken and retaken seven times in one day. The Germans renewed the offensive on November 7 more violently than ever south of Dixmude. The enemy displaced by the Germans left no doubt that they were attempting a decisive effort. The French losses were heavy, but those of the Germans were appalling. The officer himself saw one German regiment advancing with colours flying, and when it reached a point about 100 yards from the French trenches it was received with a murderous rifle fire which compelled it to retire. The regiment advanced again and got within 100 yards of the trenches, but was again swept back by the French fire. The order was given to let the enemy approach, and when they were only about thirty yards from the trenches the French opened fire, killing every man. The officer says that within ten minutes 3,000 Germans were killed.—Reuter's Special.

S. AFRICAN OFFICER'S GRIT.

The following cablegrams from the Governor-General of the Union of South Africa to the Secretary of State for the Colonies was published last night:— Lieutenant Colonel Dirk van de Venter reports on November 9 as follows:— "Yesterday I drove over from Waterforden over Zandfontein in the direction of Rietfontein and took a portion of their laager at Zandfontein, about thirty miles west of Warmbaths. "Fight took place about 3 p.m., and about 125 of the enemy were killed or wounded and twenty-five were captured. Loss on our side was twelve killed and eleven wounded. The officers and the men conducted themselves very bravely. "Heaviest fighting took place under Commandant Geysse, of Waterberg, and a portion of the command under Acting-Commandant Theunis Botha, under Volcornt Hofman and Captain van Oller. The left wing was held by Commandant Jones and the right by Commandant Geysse and Acting-Commandant Theunis Botha. "All the men were smart and brave. Volcornt Hofman, although wounded, led his men throughout the engagement. "REBEL GENERAL CAPTURED. "PRETORIA, Nov. 12.—It is officially announced that the rebel general, Chris Muller, has been captured. Muller was found in a farmhouse sixty miles north of Brunkhof Spruit wounded in both legs.—Reuter.

RUSSIAN VICTORIES ON THREE FRONTS.

Two Austrian Divisions Wiped Out and Victories Over Huns and Turks.

PRZEMYSL INVESTED.

Notable progress is being made by the Russian armies in both East Prussia and Galicia, and the great battle of Cracow may begin at any moment. In Prussia, Johannsburg has been occupied, while in Galicia the fortress of Przemyśl is invested against Central Galicia has been evacuated by the Austrians. Two Austrian divisions have been annihilated by the Russians, while the Servians lured six battalions across the Danube and destroyed them.

NEW SUCCESS IN PRUSSIA.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 12.—The following official message relating to yesterday's fighting in East Prussia and Galicia was issued today:— "Fighting in East Prussia proceeded on the Stalluponen-Kruglanken front and in the Saldan region. The Russians occupied Johannsburg. "In the Carpathians Austrian rearguards, which retained positions on the passages over the Upper San, in the Sank region, were attacked by the Russians. "The blockade of Przemyśl, which had been interrupted during the advance of the Austro-German armies, is now resumed.

TURKS DEFEATED.

On the Caucasian front during Tuesday insignificant fights took place in the Transcaucasian territory, on the frontier, and on the Batoum territory. The positions at Kaprikol have been retained by the Russians, and all attempts by the Turkish forces to envelop the Russians have failed. The enemy has been defeated, and one of his columns which attempted the enveloping movement has been dispersed. A message from Bukarest says two Austrian divisions have been annihilated along the River Fruth. While a small Russian force made a frontal attack on them the Russian main force cut off the Austrian retreat.—Exchange.

WHEN GERMANY RETIRES.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 12.—Any day, indeed any hour, news is expected here of the beginning of a great battle at Cracow. The Germans have been digging trenches and erecting barbed wire entanglements along the whole of the Russo-German frontier. It is understood, however, that their main plan is to retire on to the line of fortresses, Koenigsberg, Loetzen, Grandenz, Bromberg, Posen, Glogau, Hrosan and Neisse.—Reuter's Special.

STRONG POSITION AT PRZEMYSL.

ROME, Nov. 12.—A message from Petrograd says that the Russian armies now investing Przemyśl are entirely immune from all possibility of a rear attack. The army operating from the south is free from molestation by reason of the fact that the Russians occupy all Galicia as far as Turka, while those operating from the north are fully protected by the army which, having defeated the Austrians on the San, has now advanced to Blazona.—Exchange.

LURED TO THEIR DOOM.

NISS, Nov. 11.—The following official statement is issued here:— "After three days' sanguinary fighting our forces fell back from Goutchevo on November 7 in good order on their positions in that line. "On November 9 the enemy at daybreak succeeded in throwing across to the other side of the river near Smolerevo six battalions of infantry and two quick-fiers. "They crossed the Danube under cover of their artillery, which was placed on the left bank and on the island of Smolerevo. "Our troops, defending the passage, fell back, drawing the enemy on, and then made a violent attack upon them. "This counter-attack, which commenced at 10 p.m. and ended at 1.30, resulted in the complete defeat of the enemy. All those who were not rendered hors-de-combat or drowned in the Danube fell into our hands. "We made 2,000 prisoners, amongst whom were a colonel and six officers.—Reuter.

LOSS OF GOOD HOPE AND MONMOUTH.

The following official statement was made yesterday:— "The Secretary of the Admiralty regrets to announce that in the absence of further information the loss of his Majesty's ships Good Hope and Monmouth must be presumed. "The list of officers and men who, according to the information of the Admiralty, were serving in these two ships at the time of the action will be published shortly."
