Dear Sir,

I have today despatched per Great Western Railway the plaster bust of William Harvey, which you so kindly lent to the Historical Medical Museum. I trust it will reach you quite safely and uninjured; I have had it packed with great care by a special packer.

I take this opportunity of thanking you very cordially for your kindness in lending it to us for so long and for your permission to have a replica made for this Museum.

Faithfully yours,

Dear Sir,

Many thanks for your kind letter of the 11th inst. and your reply by telegram duly to hand.

I much regret that by an oversight while I was travelling on the Continent in November your letter of the 16th was overlooked and not brought to my notice.

I take this opportunity of thanking you for your kindness in allowing us to have a copy of the bust made for the permanent Museum. As soon as the work has been completed, I will return the original to you very carefully packed.

I desire to thank you again very cordially for lending us this interesting portrait of Harvey, and I can assure you it has been much appreciated and was a valuable addition to the Museum.

Faithfully yours,

C.T.

Dear Sir

In reply to your letter of the 13th inst. I have no objection to one copy of the Bust of Harney being made for the Museum but I should not wish more than one copy to be taken.

I should have no objection to lending the Bust, for a further period of say six months if that was desired.

Yours faithfully

Dear Sir, In reply to your letter of the 12th inst., I much regret to say that I have not got the cast of the bust of Harvey which was in my Father's possession, nor do I know who has it. It is possible, however, that my elder brother
may know something of it, and you might be successful in writing to him:—
