Dear Sir

When I sent the old enema Syringe I wanted to make a little contribution to your collection without expecting money in return.

Yours faithfully

Dear Sir,

Many thanks for sending the old enema syringe which, although we have one of a somewhat similar pattern, I shall be pleased to have. I should think the value of it would be about 3s. 6d., and if that is agreeable I shall be glad to forward a postal order for the same.

Thanks for kindly telling me about Mr. F. Milnes Blumer. I will write to him on the matter.

Faithfully yours,

C.J.S.T.

July 31st 1917

Dear Sir

I am in receipt of your letter of the 26th.

I am sending an obsolete instrument which I believe was used as an Enema Syringe.

I will let you know if I come across any obsolete instrument-

GENERAL INFIRMARY
STAFFORD

because unfortunately I could not find any old surgical instruments or appliances stored anywhere.

Mr F. Milnes Blumer the Senior Surgeon to the Infirmary has a collection of old instruments and I feel sure he will dispose of some of them if you communicate with him.

Yours faithfully
M. Farag
