Dear Sir,

We should be glad if you would kindly let us know the price you require for the "scold's bridle" which you advertise in the Bazaar, and also further particulars of it. We should be glad to know also if you would send it on approval.

Awaiting the favour of your reply,

We are,

Faithfully yours,

Sir,

With reference to your advertisement in the "Bazaar," I shall be glad if you will let me know if you have any portraits of old medical men or surgeons in your collection. Also any pictures representing surgical operations, alchemical laboratories or apothecaries' shops, are of interest to me.

Faithfully yours,

December 29th, 1906.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 18th Inst., in which you offer me the manuscript case book of an English doctor, 1798, an old Indian brass mortar, a white earthen jar of bronze with a lid, and a small earthen jar with a lid and a small earthen jar with a lid, I am glad to make you an offer for the articles without seeing them, but if you will kindly send them an approval to my office address

Mr. F. Brown,

c/o Roworth & Co.,

12, Little Newport Street,

London, E. C.

I will send you the book after I see the specimens.

I will accept any reasonable amount with the exception of the mortar, if you will kindly advise me as to the value of the articles.

Yours faithfully,
F. Brown

send me a list and full description of all the old brass, copper and pewter things you have, and and the old bronzes, as they may be of use to me - I collect them.

Yours truly,

Major Thomas Browning,
19, Upper Waller Street,
London.

NEW YORK

I have also some very quaint old Irish Brass candlesticks small about 4 inches high.

They were formerly made to be used with small candles by the Roman Catholic citizens before small altars in their houses, during illness etc.

I doubt if you see many in England. I could let you have two pair at a moderate price - I have very good things in old brass copper pewter & iron work that I would part with to a private collector, for a fair price - and also a large number of prints etc collected in Malta Sicily
