Dear Sir,

I am enclosing herewith 16 prints, which I took the liberty of keeping, but now beg to return to you.

There are all I have, or ever have had, either of negatives or prints. It is just possible that either in my hotel at Lisbon or Biarritz or Paris

a copy of one or two of the photos may have been lost, but as I said before the enclosed are all of which I have any knowledge.

I beg to remain,

Yours faithfully

Dear Sir

I am enclosing

which I omitted to include with those
I left at Inow

Apologizing for the omission, I remain.

Dear Sir,

Mr. Wellcome has duly received yours of the 9th inst.
enclosing some more photographic prints.

It is probable that you may still have some more, and I should be obliged if you would make a very thorough search to see if you cannot find some more prints or exposed negatives which were taken when you were in Portugal.
Will you kindly have a search at your earliest convenience,
and let me have any you may find?

Faithfully yours,

Mr. Macallister,

Dear Sir,

Your letter of the 10th inst. has been duly handed to me, and I note from it that you have arrived at Biarritz.

I understand that Mr. Wellcome's arrival was slightly delayed, but you will no doubt have seen him by this time.

Should you have occasion to write to me direct, will you please endorse the envelope "Private", and mark it "C.J.S.T."?

Faithfully yours,

Mrs. H. MacAllister,

called at the Hotel Victoria two or three times each day, but M^r Wellcome has not yet arrived, nor have they received any news as to his coming.

I am staying at the Hotel
as above, and beg to remain,

Mr. McAlistair has spent portions of ten separate days in Photographers Studio, and during that time we have explained and coached him in the elementary principles governing photographic work especially on the practical use of the cameras he will handle, and the calculation of ^{the} correct exposure.

He has made a number of exposures with the N^o 2 Bull's Eye and the N^o 3^A Folding Pocket Kodak, loading & unloading ^{them} himself, and the spools ^{have been} developed in his presence, the causes of failure explained in each,

He has seen & had explained the practical work of the Panoram Kodak at the Kodak office, but has not been able to make exposures with this type.

The Cartridge Kodak he has not seen, as Messrs Kodak had not a sample of this old type to show.

He now understands the principle, and is quite a beginner has made fair progress, ~~but he lacks~~ ^{only requires} the necessary experience to enable him to handle the instruments quickly & surely.

E. S. Price

I suggest that if you could find a good film at once he would develop them for some satisfaction.
