Dear Sir

Thank you for your letter about the portrait of Sydney ^{Smith} ~~Smith~~. I shall be very pleased to lend it for the ^{historical} ~~historical~~ Museum.

Yes, Mr. Payne took a very great interest in the subject —

Will you let me know where I can send it to send it?

Yours faithfully
Helen C. Payne

P.S.

Shall I send the frame we ordered -
with the portrait - or to you? This is a photo of the portrait

Mrs. Payne,
20, Harcourt Terrace,
Redcliffe Square, S.W.

Dear Madam,

I desire to thank you for your kind letter of the 6th inst., and for being so good as to lend the portrait of Sydenham for the Historical Medical Museum. I shall be most pleased to have it as it will form an interesting addition to our Medical Portrait Gallery. I could send a trusted messenger for it at any time convenient to you if you will kindly phone me accordingly. Will you please fill in on the form that I sent you the amount for which you would like it insured while in our possession, and you could hand it to the messenger with the picture.

Again thanking you very cordially for your kindness.

I am,

Yours faithfully,

Payne

Dear Sir

With reference to your letter of Oct. 31. asking me if I had any objects of his ~~former~~ medical interest to dispose of - I write to say I can assure there is nothing you would care to have - as all Dr Paget's medical books - diplomas were sold after his death -

There is a large ^{framed} engraving which might interest you, if you have not already got it - It is the one of Henry VIII granting the charter to the Barber Surgeons -

about 3 feet by 2 - We do not wish to keep it - That is all I can suggest -

Dear Madam,

I desire to thank you for your kind letter of the 14th inst. We already have a copy of the engraving of Henry VII granting the Charter to the Barber Surgeons, or we should have been pleased to avail ourselves of your kind offer. I note that you have no other objects of historical medical interest, and thank you for the trouble you have so kindly taken in the matter,

I am,

Faithfully yours,

Mrs. Payne,
