Aberdeen,

Sir,

Thank you very much for your kind letter about the Red Cross Exhibition in Aberdeen. I enclose some circulars which will explain the scope of the work. So you will see we are hoping to have a historic Section, and the things we have already promised for this, though very interesting, are very few. We should therefore be most grateful if you would be kind enough to lend us any of your most interesting exhibits that can be spared. I need not say that the very greatest care will be taken of them - and a night watchman maintained during the time the exhibition is open.

With again many thanks for your kindness in consenting to help us - I am

Yours faithfully

The Countess of Aberdeen,

Dublin.

Madam,

Your kind letter of the 19th inst., addressed to Messrs. Burroughs Wellcome & Co., with reference to the loan of some exhibits for the Red Cross and National Service Exhibition to be held in Aberdeen in December next, has been forwarded to me.

I shall be most pleased to do what I can to assist you in the matter and I think we have several interesting objects which might be lent for a few weeks from our Museum, including an old bearer ambulance and a large field equipment case. The Historical Medical Museum closes on October 31st for some months for rearrangement, so after that time we could spare these objects for a week or two.

I trust you may be able to honour the Museum with a visit when you are in London. Even after we are closed,

Hunter

2.

I shall be very pleased to show you over the Museum, if you will kindly communicate with me again.

I have communicated with Miss Thurstone and asked her for particulars of the Exhibition.

I am,

Yours obediently,

Gentlemen,

I thank you for sending me an invitation to your medical Exhibition which I hope I may have the opportunity to visit. I hear it is most interesting and I wondered whether you would be willing to send any exhibits that might be suitable to the Red Cross and National Service Exhibition which we are organising in Aberdeen from December 16th to 20th.

Miss Thurstone, 12 Brunswick Sq., W.C., will be able to give you further particulars about the Exhibition if you would entertain the proposal.
