MEALS, MISS H

'09/'11

DRAWINGS

Easley Mews.

13th June 1911.

Dear Miss Meale,

Miss Keene called upon me this afternoon, and has arranged to take over the work in water colour. I will send for the stretched paper and the photograph and other details, if you will kindly put them all together, to-morrow afternoon. Kindly send the notes and references concerning the coloured mosaics that I gave you in the reading room at the British Museum.

I am glad to hear that business is improving, and that you will have a busy and successful season.

I am,

Faithfully yours,

C.J.S.T.

EASLEY MEWS,

WIGMORE STREET, W.

8th June 1911.

Dear Miss Meals,

In reply to yours of the 7th inst., I note what you say regarding the drawing, and regret to hear that you have been ill. I am not in a particular hurry for it, and if there is any chance of your finishing it within the next two or three months, I will wait until then, or if you will put me in touch with Miss Kenna, I will see if she will take it up. I should, however, like to know something definite. Perhaps you could give me Miss Kenné's address, as I could find accomodation for her to work on it here.

I am,

Faithfully yours,

O.J.S.T.

Dear Mr. Thompson,

I am extremely sorry I have not been able to finish the drawing of the Greek Temple. I was ill during the Easter holidays & since then I have had to devote all my time to my business. At present I have more work than I can get through. I wrote to Miss Keena asking if she were at liberty to do some drawing & have been waiting for her reply. I should be glad if you would let me know whether I should return the unfinished drawing to you or keep it until I hear from Miss Keena .

She would perhaps come here to finish
it & I could explain the colours etc to her .

Trusting I have not caused you any great inconvenience .

I am

Yrs truly

Helena Meals .

Dear Miss Meals,

I regret exceedingly that I was unable to meet you yesterday as arranged. I have been suffering from a sharp attack of neuritis and have been quite crippled for the last few days, but I hoped until the last minute to be able to get up to town yesterday.

I think the best plan will be for you to retain the drawings until you return to London, if you will kindly do this, and let me know when you expect to be back.

I am,

Faithfully yours,

Dear Mr. Thompson

I wrote to Newman
Street twice last week
& took my sketches there on Saturday morning.
As I have not heard from you, am afraid
the letters have not reached you.

I am going to write tonight asking if I may bring the sketches
to you at 9-30 in the morning.

If this time is not convenient would you
please let me know
when I may see you.

I intend to leave
Sundon Tuesday
night & would like

to hand the sketches
to you before I go.

Dear Miss Meals,

I am very sorry to hear you have been so unwell,
and trust you are now regaining your strength.

I shall be pleased to see you any day next week, either at 9.30 in the morning, or by appointment in the afternoon between 3.30 and 4 o'clock. I have heard from Miss Kenna, and understand that she has been called out of town owing to the illness of her sister. She promised to let me know when she returns.

Time is getting on, and I shall be going away shortly, and should like to get all the drawings in as soon as possible.

Dear Mr. Thompson

I regret that, through illness, I have not been able to complete the drawings for you, &
trust that you do not require them immediately
& should like to call

I see you with the drawings I have finished, towards the end of next week,
as I shall then be
going into the country
to recuperate.

If Miss Keena
returns home by then
I will arrange a day with her & let you know.
I sincerely hope

I have not caused
you any inconvenience
by my delay in finishing your drawing.

Dear Miss Meals,

I am very sorry to learn from your sister's letters that you have been so unwell, and I trust that by this time you are better.

I would have forwarded the enclosed on Saturday, but I had omitted to make a note of your address. Will you kindly sign the enclosed receipt form, and return it to me.

I shall hope to see you on Wednesday as usual.

C. J. Thompson Esq.

Dear Sir,

My sister wishes me to say that she is afraid she will not be able to continue her work until Wednesday. She has had a bad attack of influenza but I am glad to say she is now recovering quite satisfactorily. At the same time I am sure it would be most unwise for her at St. George's Square

S.W.
to venture out of the house before Wednesday.

Believe me

Yours truly
