HARRISON, W. S. HERTFORD.

1913

29 October 1913.

Dear Sir,

I desire to thank you very cordially for presenting the old bleeding instrument to the Historical Medical Museum.

I am deeply sensible of your kindness in presenting this interesting object to the permanent collection and in helping me to make it as complete as possible.

Again thanking you,

I am,

Yours very truly,

H. S. W.

Dear Sir,

It will afford me much pleasure if you will accept for your permanent Museum the small object I sent on loan to you in May last.

I regret that it is not of greater value and more historic interest.

Medical men and Veterinary Surgeons are deeply indebted to you for providing such an instructive and interesting exhibition.

Yours very faithfully

W. S. Harrison M.R.C.P.

Dear Sir

I herewith send for your inspection an old bleeding instrument, and if you consider it of sufficient interest to place with other exhibits
at your forthcoming Medical Museum
I shall be pleased to place it at your disposal in due course

Yours faithfully

W. S. Harrison
