Will accept Twenty for picture
Miles

Newman St.

18th January 1911.

Dear Sir,

Please deliver to bearer the picture of Augustine for which he will hand you the sum of Twenty-three pounds as agreed.

With reference to the portrait that you have of Dr. Ernest Hart, we should not like to venture more than Twelve pounds on the same, as the picture is of little interest to us.

We are,

Faithfully yours,

14th January 1811.

Dear Sir,

In reply to yours of the 14th inst. just to hand, confirming our telephone nessage of this morning, we regret we cannot see our way to give Twenty-seven pounds for the oil painting of Augustine, as we do not think it worth more than our original offer, but to close the matter, we are willing to meet you halfway, and will give Twenty-three pounds cash for it.

If this is agreeable to you kindly reply by early post, and we will send to clear it on Monday morning.

We are,

Faithfully yours,

Following on my letter of 20th Dec last - to you re Panel of Antique for which you made me an offer - which I could not accept.
I have now sold the jewellery part of the property and, if you care to

Miles

In return the picture I'll be pleased to turn it out for say £27-10-0 to settle it up.

If not acceptable to you - an intimation per telegraph would be considered a favor & give me an opportunity of at once trying another direction. Awaiting your reply

Believe me
Yours truly
