HEILBRONNER, M. H., PARIS.

1914

7. 5 Co
6 April 1914.

Dear Sir,

I have arrived back in London and send you herewith a draft for 1000 francs for the objects I purchased from you last week, viz., the circumcision knife, the large pair of surgical scissors, the twenty-four instruments for trepanning, the wood statuette and the ancient picture of a doctor.

We should be glad if you would have these packed as carefully as possible, and forwarded to us by grande vitesse at once.

Faithfully yours,

M. H. Heilbronner,
Quai Voltaire,
Paris.

PARIS

Paris, 10th of January 1914

Dear Sir,

I am sorry to tell you that
Mr. Heilbronner has not found anything of interest to you in Spain.

Mr. Heilbronner is not in Paris
now, but he will most probably come back in a few days, and write to you.

Will you believe me, dear Sir,
Yours respectfully

For Mr. Heilbronner

Epworth & Co

6 January 1914.

Dear Sir,

You will no doubt remember that we recently purchased from you a belt of Chastity, and some other antique objects in November last. You were just then going to Spain, and hoped to meet with some other objects of interest to us. Should you have found anything recently in the way of antiques connected with medicine or surgery such as anatomical models, instruments, etc. we should be glad if you would kindly let us know.

We are hoping to be in Paris again next month, and could call in and see anything you may have.

Yours faithfully,

Monsieur Heilbronner.
