23 September 1914.

Dear Sir,

I desire to thank you for your letter of August 15th and for your kind offer of the complete cupping case that belonged to your late father. Although we have several already in the Museum, it is quite possible that yours may be different and older than those we already have, and we should be very pleased to accept your kind offer when you can find a convenient time to send the case.

Again thanking you very cordially for your kind wishes,

I am,

Faithfully yours,

Dear Sir
Your letter of acknowledgment of receipt of books received this morning I am very glad they have arrived safely. It was foolish of me not to have put in a complete Clipping Case belonging to my late Father & used to him in William & Victoria time, if you have not got one in the Museum I shall be happy to present this Case if you have one it does not matter & I am only sorry I forgot it I am writing merely to ask & wishing the Museum every success -

I am faithfully yours
Charles Fox

A page of handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a manuscript. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is heavily crossed out with numerous diagonal lines, suggesting it was either a draft or intended to be redacted. The handwriting is dense and fills most of the page.

Dear Sir,

On behalf of Mr. Wellcome I desire to thank you very cordially for the old works on medicine which you have so kindly presented to the Wellcome Historical Medical Museum and which have duly arrived today. I can assure you we much appreciate your kindness in adding these volumes to our library to which they will form an interesting and valuable addition.

Again thanking you,

I am,

Faithfully yours,

Dear Sir

At last after many attempts I am getting the books promised for your Museum off by this weeks Mail Boat. I have complied then to your through Payne & Co. forwarding agent to your address by mail. I hope of course I hope they will come & have abrupt & dry R. M. I shall be glad to hear of their safe arrival - I would like to present them on the part of my uncle Dr. Brown who lived & practised latter part of 17th Century & early 18th Century by himself his nephew my father & Dr. Brown were contemporaries & practised at Warrham in Dorset. I should like very much to see the Museum, I have often heard the travelling of your firm to speak of you & I wish as much as I can success it is just the thing wanted for present-day students

Truly yours
Charles F. Brown

Dear Sir,

I desire to thank you for your kind letter of the 29th ult. with reference to the Historical Medical Museum. We shall be most pleased to accept the old medical books that you kindly offer for our library in connection with the Museum. We have no printed catalogue of the books we have at present, or I should have been pleased to have sent you a copy, but we are sending you under separate cover a copy of the hand book to the Museum giving a descriptive account of the collection.

Any old books on medicine, instruments, or other objects that you may be so kind as to send us, we shall be delighted to have. Kindly forward them addressed to the Curator at the above address, and we will pay carriage at this end.

Again thanking you for your kind words of appreciation,

I am,

Yours very truly,

C. Lovegrove Esq.,

Dear Sir

Having seen in a little brochure the opening of the Wellcome Museum of the History of Medicine, I am writing to ask if you would accept some antique Medical books which have been in our family for generations. One I have just found "Every Man his own Doctor" by John Archer Physician in ordinary to the King 1673. Perhaps you have a copy if in the collection, if you have a Catalogue you might send it along & I would be if you have any that I have an interest in they would be welcome, it is very good thing if you then to be a backbone to the Profession & I suppose reading the opening of the Museum with Gratitude & I am sure it will receive very much to the complete understanding & Education of Medicine —
