SIEVEKING, HERBERT

1913

16th July 1913.

Dear Sir,

I desire to thank you very cordially for so kindly presenting the old diploma to the Historical Medical Museum. We are having it placed in position and it will form an addition of great interest to the collection.

Again thanking you for your kindness,

I am,

Yours very truly,

Herbert Sieveking Esq.,
23, Devonshire Terrace,
Paddington.

14th July 1913.

Dear Sir,

I desire to thank you for your kind letter of the 11th inst. and for your offer of the diploma of Charles Ray for the Historical Medical Museum. I shall be very pleased to add the diploma and the account of the same which appeared in the "British Medical Journal" to our collection.

I am glad to know you are interested in the Museum, and am very grateful to you for your gift.

Again thanking you very heartily for your kindness,

I am,

Yours very truly,

Herbert Sieveking Esq.,
23, Devonshire Terrace,
Paddington.

July 11.
1913.

Dear Sir,

Yesterday I had the pleasure of visiting your most remarkable

'Historical Medical Museum'

Perusing your 'Handbook' it has occurred to me that you might possibly be pleased to accept the gift of a Diploma of Charles Ray, handed to him by Sir Astley Cooper, Pres^t. of The Royal College of Surgeons of London in 1836.

In case this should be so I would leave it at 54^{1/4} together with a 4^{1/2} page
account of the same, which appeared in "The British Medical Journal", of June 5-1909 & the obituary
notice in the same journal [Sept 6. 1908] of Mr. Ray (with portrait). —

+ by Mr. C. Louis Taylor Pres. - Editor of "The British Medical Journal".

The Diploma is signed by Eight Members who were all Presidents of the College —

The Signatories
include those of Sir Astley Cooper: Sir Anthony
Carlisle: Robert Keate
(the brother of the head of Eton):
George J. Guthrie, who served under Wellington throughout the Peninsula Campaign:

etc etc
To Henry S. Willcombe, Esquire,
54. Wigmore Street,
London. W.

I am, yours very truly
Herbert Strickland
