Without Lib

29th August 1912.

Dear Sir,

Many thanks for sending the packets of letters of Dr. Joseph Bell, and the engraving of Professor Dick, and the small pamphlet on a law suit, for my inspection. I regret owing to absence from town I have been unable to reply to you on the matter before. I should be pleased to offer you 2/9 for the portrait which is as much as it is worth to me, and am enclosing herewith a postal order for that amount in case you care to accept it, together with 6d. for postage, on the other items.

I am returning the packet of letters and the pamphlet, as I am sorry they are of no interest to me.

I am

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of 13th inst., I enclose herewith cheque for thirty-five shillings for the drawing of Professor Simpson's Class.

With respect to the autograph letters of Miss Florence Nightingale, I have purchased a number of these in London lately, but at nothing like the price you mention. They have been selling in the Auction Rooms from fifteen to sixteen shillings each. If you are open to an offer for them somewhere about this amount, I shall be pleased to consider them on approval.

Dear Sir,

Thanks for your letter of this morning enclosing further items on approval. I have already several of the etchings which you have sent me, but as you have had the trouble in forwarding them, I shall be pleased to give you Twelve shillings for the lot, which together with Six Shillings and threepence for the mezzo-tint of Mackintosh, I enclose herewith.

Would it be possible for you to send me the original drawing entitled "The written examination for the degree of M.D." on approval? As it is very difficult to judge of the value without seeing it. If the owner will permit you to send it to me, I will pay cost of carriage both ways if I do not purchase.

Kindly send me a formal receipt for the enclosed.
