13 December 1915.

Dear Sir,

I am now enclosing per Messrs. Cook's a cheque for the value of 22.13 pesos, being the amount paid by you for cost and transportation of the obstetrical chairs mentioned in your letter of Aug. 19th. I regret the delay in sending this, but there is some difficulty just now about getting the bank draft. Would you be good enough to send me your receipt for this, and oblige,

Faithfully yours,

C.J.S.T.

Dear Sir,

In January last, at the instance of the Bureau of Health, Manila, I agreed to pay the expenses of the forwarding to your Museum of a curious obstetrical chair in use in the province of Samar, Philippines. I understand that correspondence has passed between you and the Director of the Bureau on this subject.

I now enclose Bill of Lading for the shipment of two of these chairs as also account paid by me for the cost and transportation of the same amounting in all to P22.13 pesos. Kindly forward me this amount by Bank Draft.

I am,

Dear Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

Thomas Harrington

Acting British Consul-General.
