HEMINGWAY, E

1916

Wigmore Street

8 December 1916.

Dear Mr. Hemmingway,

Thanks for your note. I am afraid the shop rounds are of very little use to us for Museum purposes, and one would have to put them away, and I have very little room for storage just now. However, if you are open to accept three guineas for the twelve dozen that I believe you had, I will take them over.

Faithfully yours,

C.J.S.T.

Dear Mr. Thompson

I reply to your letter of 12th which I thank you I cannot accept less than the sum asked, which is 4/- per doz less than
I offered them at
on the first occasion
I consider it a very small sum to ask.

Yours faithfully

Dear Mr. Hemmingway,

I have now been through the list you kindly left, and have given the matter full consideration, and as our storage room is very limited, I have had to delete the articles I have crossed out in red. I find that I have already stored a large number of similar shop rounds to those you have, and at the present have no more room to put others away. The articles deducted according to your list amount to £11. 1s. 8d., and I shall be pleased to offer you £25. for the rest of the things on the list.

If this is agreeable to you, let me know and I will make preparations for removing them during next week.

Faithfully yours,

P.S. Will you kindly return the enclosed list to me with your reply?

Dear Sir,

Mr. Rogers, a representative of Burroughs Wellcome & Co, has just called in to see me and has mentioned that he thought perhaps you might have some old things of pharmaceutical interest that might be interesting for our museum.

If convenient for you could I call in and have a chat with you tomorrow morning about 11 o'clock. If that time is not suitable if you will send me a message per bearer I should be glad.

Faithfully yours,
