ROE, MRS E

B. W. & Co.

54A, Wigmore Street,

W.

13 October 1913.

Dear Madam,

In reply to your letter of the 11th inst., from which I note that you have three more old syrup jars, we should be willing to give the same price for the two blue and white ones as we gave for the similar ones we bought from you. With regard to the plain cream-coloured jar, this is not worth more than 10/- so please do not send it unless you are prepared to accept that amount for it.

I should be glad if you would send the other two jars carefully packed and addressed to me at 54A, Wigmore Street, and I will remit you a cheque for the same.

Yours faithfully,

B. W. & Co.

Mr. C.J.S. Thompson

We give below copy of a letter we have received from Mrs. E. Roe, 20, Packers Row, Chesterfield:-

"I have some very old syrup jars with spouts and decorated with blue pattern (cherub and peacock). Would you tell me what I am to ask for them as I want to sell them. My husband, who was a customer of yours, and who died last July, was offered 12/6 each, but I thought I had better ask about the value of them. They are perfect. I have one without any pattern at all, cream colour, and that I believe is the most valuable of all."

Mrs. Roe is the widow of a chemist previously in business in Chesterfield, and we are advising her that we are passing her communication on to you for attention.

9th September, 1913.
