"Monksdene,"

Northwick Park,

Harrow-on-the-Hill,

England,

1st October, 1908.

Dear Sir,

In further reference to your telegram and letter of the 28th inst., I enclose herewith a draft for the amount of Two Thousand Six Hundred Francs payable to you in payment for the statue in wood entitled "The Sorceress," by Monsieur Savine. I have by this post instructed my forwarding agents, Messrs. Stockwell & Co., 9, Rue d'Antin, Avenue de l'Opera, to collect the statue, pack, and forward to me. Will you please at once instruct Messrs. Stockwell where and when they can obtain delivery of the statue, and they will carry out the whole matter for me.

Please forward me receipt for the enclosed draft by early post, and oblige,

Faithfully yours,

Monsieur L. G. Brevet,

Rue du Vieux Colombier,

Paris.

Dear sir,

I feel very sorry not having ten hours, when your telegram came.
I got it only at Twelve o'clock too already too late to meet you. -

I go this after-noon and see Mr.
Pavine & will transmit him your offer of 2600 francs. If he accept.
