1916

A special exhibit of interesting objects and relics associated with naval and military Surgery, Nursing and Ambulance is being arranged at the Wellcome Historical Medical Museum in Wigmore Street.

It will include miniatures, portraits, prints, autograph letters, commissions, and relics of famous naval and military surgeons, surgical instruments and appliances used in naval and military surgery in bygone times, medical and surgical chests, cases and cabinets, etc. used in war-time. Pictures, prints and drawings of field ambulance work, hospitals, appliances and equipments will also be included.

The Curator would be glad to hear from any medical practitioners who may be willing to lend relics, instruments, or objects of a similar character. Any objects lent will be treated with the greatest care, and insured against loss or damage.

Particulars and descriptions of loans should be sent as early as possible addressed to the Curator, ~~the~~ Wellcome Historical Medical Museum, 54A Wigmore Street, London, W.

5 May 1914.

Dear Sir,

I desire to thank you for forwarding me the copies of 'The Illustrated London News' containing an illustrated account of the Wellcome Historical Medical Museum. The photographs were beautifully reproduced.

Again thanking you,

I am,

Faithfully yours,

The Editor,
"The Illustrated London News",

Dear Sir,

In connection with the photographs of this Museum, which you are kindly reproducing in the "Illustrated London News" next week, I enclose you herewith a few details concerning it, so that you may be able to give its accurate designation in any description connected with the photographs.

The Museum will be re-opened the last week in May.

Thanking you in anticipation,

I am,

Faithfully yours,

C. T.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 22nd ult. I am forwarding to you under separate cover particulars of the Historical Medical Exhibition which I purpose holding in London.

If any of your friends possess objects of medical interest that they would be willing to loan me for the Exhibition, I shall esteem it a favour if you will kindly make the matter known to them.

I need hardly say that all such objects will receive the greatest possible care and would be insured both in transit and while in my possession.

I am,

Yours very truly,

J. R. Hudson, Esq.,

Dear Sir:-

Being especially interested in your proposed "World's Exposition of Medical Science", as per Mr. William Curtis' article in the "Record Herald" of yesterday, I write you this to ask for a fuller statement and as much information as you can conveniently give.

Yours truly,
