GIBBS. GEO. TAUNTON

1907

September 18th, 1907.

Dear Sir,

We beg to acknowledge your note and receipt.

The cases of furniture have duly arrived, but we have not yet examined them. We can only accept them on the terms of our offer (which was made on the recommendation of our representative who inspected them) contained in our letter of the 12th inst., namely fourteen pounds for the lot.

We are,

Yours faithfully,

Mr. Geo. Gibbs,
Station Road,
Taunton.

Gibbs

September 13th, 1907.

Dear Sir,

We will take the antique bureau with ball and claw feet and the two antique corner tables with club feet, which our representative saw at your shop on Wednesday last, for fourteen pounds the lot including packing.

Please see that the articles are enclosed in strong crates and forwarded to the above address per goods train.

Please take special care that the legs are carefully packed and guarded to prevent injury in transit.

We enclose herewith a cheque for fourteen pounds, for which please send receipt.

We are,

Yours faithfully,

Mr. Geo. Gibbs,
Antique Furniture Dealer,
Station Road,
Taunton.

Quaint Old Furniture a Speciality. Telephone No. 54x.

Dear Sir

I have your letter and Cheque safely to hand, there is some misunderstanding as regards to price of goods mentioned, the lowest trade price I offered these goods to your representative was Bureau £10.10.0, Tables 55/- each he promised to call again during the day this he did and offered £14 = for the goods I was out at the time

As I am always open to do business of reasonable I cut the price down to very bottom in fact I paid £9.10.0 for Bureau myself, I should very much like to start business with you and should be pleased to send you photos from time to time, if you will agree to send me the 2/- difference on receipt of goods, I will see that they are carefully packed and sent to you on Monday but all emptys must be returned

I remain
Yours faithfully G. Gibbs
