Dear Sir I enclose estimate for modelling statues, and shall be glad to receive your approval.

I am offering to take this work at a very reasonable figure, on account of the number required - I know you fully appreciate the size of the statues, and although crudity of
modelling is essential, that quality of work

is only obtained by careful consideration,
and is not the result
of quick work.

Hoping to hear from you shortly

I am

Yours sincerely

Dear Sir

Many thanks for your letter of yesterday.

Unfortunately, I
cannot meet you this morning as you wish,
but I am returning to London on Friday

and will call upon you Saturday between 10 & 12 a.m. and
take my chance
of finding you in.

Faithfully yours

WADLEY NEWS,

4th April 1911.

Dear Sir,

Mr. Boscawen has mentioned your name to me as being likely to carry out some modelling in clay of primitive deities which I require doing.

If you could kindly give me a call to-morrow morning any time between ten and twelve, I should be glad to explain the matter to you.

I am,

Faithfully yours,

C.J.S.T.
