2nd November, 1897.

DEAR SIR,

THE following story I venture to send you, as it may show how widely your famous tobacco (Navy Cut) is known. I can vouch for the truth of it:—

In a class of small boys, a short time ago, I asked the following question: "What is the name of the battle in which the Turkish fleet was destroyed?" (Navarino). One small boy put up his hand and said: "Please, sir, the battle of Nav—Nav—Navy Cut." On being chaffed about it afterwards, he said "Anyhow, if I did say 'Navy Cut, you and my father smoke it."

Yours truly,

(Signed) P. T. THORNBURGH.
