C. S. Thompson Esq
Dear Sir

Re Marrianus - I have just counted "Book Auction Records" (the best reference book of the kind, only supplied to the Trade) and the following are the three latest quotations for copies sold in the London Auction rooms

£5 Quartsch

£6 15 0 Ellis 174 plates same number as ours

£7 15 0 Quartsch

Per Quartsch Catalogues it at £15

I will take £3 10 0 for it but that is the best I can do kindly return it, or you do not care for it at that price

With many thanks I remain
Yours respectfully
J. Miles

In approval.

Many thanks. I regret these are all I am able to send for your inspection. Many of the items were sold by telegram

Harrow,

19th March, 1909.

Dear Sir,

Thanks for sending the books on approval. I find that I already have a copy of South's "Craft of Surgery", and the miniature books are useless to me. I shall be pleased to offer you twelve shillings for the others, and enclose you cheque for that amount. If you cannot accept this, return the cheque, and I will forward the books.

Faithfully yours,

21st May, 1909.

Dear Sir,

Thanks for sending the books on approval, I would keep them all, but four guineas is too much for the Merianus's Herbal. This book comes up for auction in London more frequently than you think, and is not worth more than two pounds at the outside. If you are willing to accept four pounds ten shillings for the lot, on hearing from you I will forward cheque by return of post.

In reply to your note, I will keep the Herbal at three pounds ten shillings, the price you state, if you will accept twenty-seven shillings for the other books, making a total of four pounds seventeen shillings for the four. Kindly let me know, and I will send cheque.

Faithfully yours,

Harrow.

26th May, 1909.

Dear Sir,

I have pleasure in enclosing herewith cheque to the value of five pounds for the books and manuscripts, for which amount kindly let me have receipt.
