Dear Sir,

Thanks for sending the parcel of books on approval. I find Rowley's "Practice of Physic" is of no use, and am returning it.

I can offer 10/., for the other three books, which I am retaining until I hear from you.

I have passed your account for 4d to Dr Chalmers, and he will no doubt deal with it,

Faithfully yours,

C. J. S. Thompson Esq.

Dear Sir,

Many thanks for cheque duly to hand. I enclose receipt herewith.

I do not quite follow your statement that nineteen shillings was the amount offered for the medical books you retained. In your letter of Oct. 8th the prices affixed to the books you asked for on approval, were the same as those quoted in the list submitted to Mr A. J. Chalmers and these prices were repeated on the invoice I sent you with the books. The Rowley's "Physic" was returned but was not accompanied by an offer for the other books.

I enclose statement showing balance due.

I can now supply a copy of Henrici Ultrajectini, Praxis Medicinæ Novaratio 1650, small 8vo. $\frac{1}{2}$ calf, in good condition for 9/- as quoted before.
Yours faithfully, M. A. McGoff.

Dear Sir,

I desire to thank you for your letter of the 24th inst. I sent you a letter on the 15th inst. offering you nineteen shillings for the books I retained, but as you never received it, I presume it was lost in the post. If you do not care to accept this offer, I will return the books to you, as they are not worth more than nineteen shillings to me.

29 OCT 1912

Dear Sir,

Thanks for your letter of 26th inst.
The letter containing your offer must have gone astray as I certainly never received it.

However, I accept your offer of 19/- for the books you have had; and the transaction may now be considered closed.

I mentioned in my last letter that I could supply for 9/- a copy of Andani Heurnii Ultrajectini, Praxis Medicinæ 1650. Do you care to have this?

I also enclose a list of a few more old medical books which have just come to hand.

Yours faithfully
M. A. McGoff.
