Gentlm

I have been unable to answer your letter of the 6th inst. as before I carried out of our suggestions therein. I had first to see the owner of the goods, who now says that I am not to part with the jars unless the money is paid. So if you still want them you had better send me Postal orders for 36/- (including box, packing + insurance) - He will accept no cheque - I am dorry to have to make these restrictions but he is holding me liable /

An early answer will oblige Yours truly

Newman St.

6th October 1911.

Madam,

Towards the end of August we saw you about three Chinese pots with lids which you had for sale, and we did not come to an agreement as to price.

We shall now be willing to give you the Thirty-five shillings you asked for the three, and if you will please pack them carefully in cotton wool in a small box, and forward them to the above address by parcel post, we will forward you a cheque for the amount on receipt.

Please insure the parcel, and we will pay cost of postage and insurance.

Faithfully yours,

Mme. Violette,
