Six lithographs by Sidney D. Moss of scenes from the Battle of Loos

Publication/Creation

1916

Persistent URL

https://wellcomecollection.org/works/atevcrrx

License and attribution

Pte W. R. BAKER . M.M. RAMCTF

43 Belsize Avenue

W Ealing W. 13

A.D.S. Loos 1916

H.P. 7

? Brig DIXON McBn

?

Men q Heath

June 26th

Captains - Charm -
dear -

Yesterday, on Corps Sunday, I was visited by a very ardent admirer of yours. He was ex-Pte W.R.Baker, MM, late RAMC TF. He brought with him a series of very beautiful pictures, lithographs
I think they are, of an ADS at Loos in 1916.

He is presenting them to the Museum and I tried to find more about their history. He at once referred me to you, who, he said, would be able to provide the details, what the unit was, what was the bocation of the ADS etc.

I am especially interested because I was at the Battle of Loos in 1915 but I could not spot whether it was the old brewery which my F.Amb. occupied in that very gloomy xxxxxx area. Jock Macfie and I spent a long time looking over them and, if you can supply any further information about them, who was the artist etc, it would be most useful for our records.

Why not take a run down here one of these fine days and have a look around. We have a good deal of new material.

All the best considered he had made a great contribution to Esprit de Corps by his talks on history and achievement to all ranks as they passed through the depot.

Loos
(A.D.S.

Leos 1905

Loos
(A.D.S.)

Loos 1916

Loos

Loos Sidney B...
1915

Loos Cemetery

Loos. 1916

Loos

LOOS. 1916

Sidney F. Moss
1.1.1916