RUNDLE, DR. H.

'14/'15

H.M.M.

25 March 1915.

Dear Sir,

I am returning to you per parcel post insured the set of photographs of the Alice Reserve War Hospital which you so kindly lent for our exhibition of Naval and Military Surgery.

Please accept our cordial thanks for the loan of these interesting photographs which I trust you will receive safely. I shall be glad if you will kindly acknowledge their receipt.

I am,

Faithfully yours,

C.J.S.T.

Dr. H. Rundle,

10 November 1914.

Dear Sir,

I desire to thank you very cordially for so kindly sending the eight photographs of the Alice Reserve War Hospital, 1870, for the special exhibit we are arranging here in connection with Naval and Military Surgery.

We shall take every care of the photographs and return them to you when the exhibition closes.

I am,

Faithfully yours,

C. J. H.

Dr. H. Rundle,

SOUTHSEA, HANTS.

7 November
1914.

Dear Sir,

I see a notice in the Medical Journals that you are organizing an Exhibition of objects etc. associated with War Surgery. I have sent you by parcel post Eight Photographs of the Alice Reserve War Hospital erected at Sarnsbury in the Franco-German War 1870-71, and also

A short account of the Hospital.

I have published a book
"Some Reminiscences of The Franco-Prussian War
under the Red Cross 1870-71," price 2/6 net, which contains a note on the Hospital. It is sold for charity. If you would like a copy for your Museum, I will send you a copy, if you will kindly send me P. order for that amount?

Yours faithfully
Henry Dunant.
