Pontardawe,
Swansea Valley.

October 27th

Henry S. Wellcome Esq.

Dear Sir

I am writing to say I shall be very pleased to present what I owned to the Historical Medical Museum
if you consider them worth your acceptance
I enclose the description of the Bowl, & was so sorry I could not find it when it was sent.

I am delighted to know the Exhibition
was such a success.
My late Grandfather who was a Medical Man in Practice for 46 years would have taken a great interest in it

Had he been alive
Wishing the Exhibition Great success

Believe me
Yours truly
L. Gustafson

Dear Madam,

I desire to thank you very cordially for presenting the copper bowl, pair of spectacles and old feeder to the Historical Medical Museum.

I am deeply sensible of your kindness in presenting these interesting objects to the permanent collection and in helping me to make it as complete as possible.

Again thanking you,

I am,

Yours very truly,

H. S. W.
