Dear Sir,

Some time ago, I recd a letter to me asking if I could send you any — thing for your Dedicate Exhibition at Wexmouth.
Saying that the greatest Car would be taken of it, & that you would pay the Carriage of it, & Insurance

if thought necessary, I sent you my Grandfather's Diploma (Surgeon)
I believe about 140 years old. Would you be so kind as to return it to me as soon as possible, as I could not bring it home
it. The name on it was Samuel Shannot Johnson
& the date about 1792
as near as I can remember attention to the above letter Obliged, Yours Truly

J. S. P. Cumine

Please address it to Mr. Cumine

Dear Sir

480

I will send to you the old diploma

which belonged to my Grandfather in about a week time as requested I have no idea what value to put on it so think it need not be insured, but if you would be kind enough to register it when sending it back. I am sure it will be accepted with you in the meantime.

Please to send me a Catalogue, or one of the London Papers in which an account of the Historical Museum will appear which I am sure will be a great pleasure

Yours Sincerely

S. S. P. Curme
