NAVARRO, A. DE

H.M.M. Official.

12 November 1917.

Dear Mr. de Navarro,

I have just received from your publishers a copy of your book on English Pewter, and shall, I am sure, read it with great interest. It seems full of most useful information on the subject, and will be sure to prove of great value to me in the pieces I have in the Museum.

Thanking you very cordially for your kind gift, with kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr Thompson

I cannot refrain from sending you a line to express to you the pleasure I experienced in meeting you the other day, and to say how much benefited by your kind hospitality. My boy is so anxious to see you & talk over William Morris. He has chatted with Mr May Morris at Kelmscott.

one day this week. We had a special cult of Morris, and anticipate already great pleasure in meeting
you. My wife is much touched by all the said love of you.

Yours sincerely
A. de Navarro

P.S.

— May be up on course on day next week. If you will come again to see us; perhaps you would allow me to take some what better prints in way have.

Dear Mr. de Navarro,

I must indeed apologise for troubling you on such a trifling matter while you are so much occupied, unfortunately with illness in your family. I am sincerely sorry that this has been so prolonged, and of course had no idea of your trouble when I wrote to you.

I shall look forward with pleasure to your visit here when you have some leisure and your anxieties are over.

With all good wishes for good luck to your work in France,

I am,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Thompson

You must bear with me for not keeping my promise to you.

Ever since I saw you in London I have been overwhelmed with illness in my family (for which we are now here),
and mercenary work of many descriptions:
domestic, hospital (here and in France), ^{many} & ^h literary occupations. I have not written to Country Life to send you a copy of my book, & hope you will in London begin to find me, and spend a $\frac{1}{2}$ hour in your pleasure-able company. I may not be able to see you, as I am recalled any day to France, to continue my former 2 years work among the brave French wounded

With all good wishes believe me to be
Yours sincerely

Dear Mr; de Navarro,

I came across the last letter you wrote to me in June the other day, and notice you kindly promised to send us a copy of your book on pewter. May I remind you of it, as I am sure it would be most useful to us in connection with the pieces we have in this Museum.

I was in Taunton in September last and was much interested in the collections in the Museum at the Castle, which included that of Mr. Charbonnier's in which I was very interested.

I should be glad to see you any time when you are in town, and have a few minutes leisure to look at some of our accessions.

Faithfully yours,

C.J.S.T.

Dear Dr. Kempson

Many thanks for your kind letter. I will plan to show my wife or I, or both, as in order. When that will be, I cannot tell. We have both been suddenly called here by the unexpected and serious illness of our little girl:
diphtheria, etc 3rd time in 3 years in years, alas. But, thank God, today she shows improvement.

Yours in haste - ever

Dear Mr. de Navarro,

I am so glad to learn from your kind letter that you were pleased with your short visit to our Museum, and I look forward with pleasure to your promised call when I shall be very glad to show you all the pictures and prints of barber-surgeons we possess. I shall be pleased to meet you again, and I trust you will be able to bring your son at the same time as I feel sure from what you tell me that we have many things here to interest him. I trust also that when your wife is in town, she will honour us with a visit some day.

If you will kindly 'phone me on the morning that you expect to call, I will make a point of being in, as my hospital duties call me away very frequently just now.

Believe me,

Sincerely yours,

C.J.S.T.
