Dear Sir

Your letter to hand.

After thinking the matter over I find I shall be quite unable to undertake the repair of Pottery.

I should not care to leave place I am at now I work from 9am till 7 1/2
so do not get much spare time, if I had been a few pieces I could have managed the work but being such a quantity
it would be no use me

undertaking the Job However if you do not make other arrangements
I should be pleased to see you any morning ~~at~~ about 9 o'clock if you let me know.

Yours faithfully
a Livingstone

Dear Sir,

Our man, Mr. Bourne, who saw you to-day, tells us that you are still engaged in regular work in repairing. We have recently had a large collection of pottery put in our hands for restoration and repairing, which numbers at least

Would it be worth your while to give up your present situation to come to us to work upon it on our premises. If so, state what wages per week you would require.

Faithfully yours,

E. & Co.
