Dear Sirs,

Many thanks for sending the books for inspection. I find I have a copy of the 'Heister', and also 'Sculptetus', so am returning these to you carriage paid, but I am keeping the other books. I presume you will allow me the usual 10% discount that other booksellers do, and am therefore enclosing you a draft for 34.40 francs. I shall be glad if you will acknowledge receipt of same on enclosed form, and return it to me.

HISTORICAL MEDICAL . . . MUSEUM . . .

The Microscopes and Specimens are exhibited by

W. WATSON & SONS, Limited,
313, High Holborn, London, W.C.

The Stands are their popular "H" EDINBURGH STUDENT'S MODEL, full details of which, together with much interesting information, will be found in their Microscope Catalogue No. 2. It will be forwarded gratis on application.

The Preparations exhibited are from their regular stock—consisting of over 40,000 specimens. Duplicates of the slides exhibited can be supplied at the following prices . . .

SIMULIUM.	Male, female, pupa, larva, newly hatched larva and ova. Six slides, complete in case,	set 14s. 0d.
	If purchased separately	each 2s. 6d.
ANOPHELES MACULIPENNIS.	Male, female, pupa and larva	set 9s. 6d.
	If purchased separately	each 2s. 6d.

The above are mounted by a special process, without pressure,
and have a particularly life-like appearance.

W. WATSON & SONS make a speciality of supplying specimens for teaching and comparative purposes. All are mounted by experts and can be relied upon as being permanent and absolutely typical. They are in a position to make preparations from Doctors own material and also to make photographs from same. Prices will be quoted on application.

For those who are unable to personally inspect the Specimens at 313, HIGH HOLBORN, WATSON'S will be pleased to submit selections on approval.

Full details of their Collection of Microscopic Objects will be found in Catalogue No. 3.
