Dear Sir,

I am very sorry that our man Mr. Bourne who was to have seen you on Friday last at 12.30 at Sans Walk was suddenly called out of town, and was unable to be there. I am very sorry you had the trouble of coming, and I shall be quite willing for him to refund your bus fare when you see him. Will you please call and see him at the same place on Monday afternoon next at 3 p.m., and he will certainly be there.

Faithfully yours,

Epworth & Co.

Dear Sir,

We regret that we were out when you called at the above address with reference to the repairs and re-rigging we require done to some model ships.

We should be obliged if you would call at 4a, Sans Walk, Clerkenwell, on Friday morning next, the 12th inst., at half past eleven o'clock, and see Mr. Bourne, who will show you the work to be done.

Thanking you in anticipation,

We are,

Faithfully yours,

Dear Sir,

Some time ago you did some repairs and re-rigging to some bone model ships for us.

We should be glad to know if you are still available to do work of this kind, as we have one or two more to be repaired, etc.

Awaiting the favour of your early reply,

We are,

Faithfully yours,

E. & Co.
