February 7th, 1910.

Dear Sir,

I desire to thank you for submitting the three books to me. I find I already possess copies of them, with the exception of Guy's Hospital Pharmacopoeia, of which I think the value is about £1. I am retaining the books until you call, and then if you are willing to accept that amount for the Pharmacopoeia, I will hand you a Postal order for the same.

Thanking you again for the kind interest you are taking on my behalf,

I am,

Yours very truly,

John Dickman Esq.,

Dear Sir

I herewith enclose the two books you mention.

I regret they are the two in worst condition of those offered.

I do not know what price to put upon them. not having seen them before. I do not think they are, either of them, very common. Please, if you care to have them. Offer, and I have no doubt it will satisfy

March 10th, 1910.

Dear Sir,

I desire to thank you for your letter of the 1st inst., and for so kindly offering me the old books. I already have copies of most of them, but Thomson's "True way of preserving the blood" and Handley's "Colloquia Chirurgica", I should be glad to see, if you will leave them here any time at your convenience, stating the price you require.

Yours faithfully,

J. Hickman Esq.,

Dear Sir,

I desire to thank you for allowing me to inspect the two books, and regret that owing to their condition they are worth very little. I should be pleased, however, to offer you 4/- for the same. If you are willing to accept this amount for the two books, I can either forward you a postal order for this sum, or if you prefer to call in, it can be handed to you here.

Yours faithfully,

I am, Dear Sir, I have enclosed for you a copy of the report of the committee on the subject of the proposed amendment to the Oregon Constitution, which was adopted at the convention held at Salem, Oregon, in 1901. The report is in two parts, the first containing the report of the committee, and the second containing the amendment itself. I trust you will find it interesting and helpful.
Very truly yours,
W. J. Young

Snow Hill Buildings.

24th June 1910.

Dear Sir,

In reply to yours of 23rd, the only letters among the list you send me that I think would be of interest for my purpose, is the licence for Dr. Perrie to practise Anatomy, and the letter of Dr. William Palmer, the Rugeley poisoner.

If you will kindly leave these at Snow Hill Buildings any time at your convenience, I will make you an offer for them.

Thanking you for submitting same to me,

I am,

Mr. John Hickman,
