London W.

Dear Sirs,

We wish to acknowledge receipt of your esteemed order to hand this morning for which we are obliged. We wish respectively to point out that we supplied you with a small parcel of books in October last for which we have not yet received payment. As that was the first occasion of which we had the pleasure of doing business with you we had expected a prompt cash settlement. We enclose the invoices of the items supplied in October and also those which you now so kindly ordered. We have deducted 10% discount as you wish and we should be glad if you would kindly let us have your cheque for the whole amount and on receipt we shall be most happy to forward the books as per your second order. We await the favour of your reply

Respectfully yours,

Epworth & Co.

24 December 1914.

Dear Sirs,

Thanks for yours of the 22nd. enclosing your accounts. We much regret the statement for the books you send in October last has been overlooked; in fact we have been unable to trace any account having been sent for it. It is quite in order, and we are enclosing you a cheque for the same with apologies, together with 5/5 for the two other books. We find that our assistant ordered the book "Venus and Apollo" in error, so please do not send it.

Thanking you in anticipation,

I am,

Faithfully yours,

E. G. G.

London W.

Dear Sirs,

We regret we are unable to accept your offer of 10/6d. (ten shillings and six pence) for the volume sent as it cost us more than that amount.

We are very anxious to do business with you and the lowest we can accept for the volume is 12/6d. (twelve shillings and six pence) net, we have no doubt you will see your way to retain it at this amount.

Respectfully yours,
