Dear Sir,

Our friend, Mr. Ealand, has kindly forwarded to us a list of books on medicine which you have to dispose of. If you are open to accept an offer, we shall be pleased to give you One pound ten shillings for the four, the titles of which we enclose.

We may say that we are always open to buy manuscripts or books printed before 1800 on medicine, surgery, pharmacy, chemistry and botany, if you care to report any such to us when you meet with them, or send them on approval, and we shall always be pleased to make you the best possible cash offer we can.

If Mr. Ealand calls upon you again, and you accept our offer, you can deliver the books to him, and we will forward you a cheque for the amount, on receipt.

We are,
Faithfully yours,

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 27th inst., as you are no doubt aware, it is very difficult to judge of the value of books of this period without first seeing them. We cannot give high prices, but we are prepared to buy in a quantity for cash, and, as this is our first business transaction, we are enclosing you a postal order for the sum of One pound sixteen shillings for the four books.

As we understand that Mr. Ealand has now left Ireland, perhaps you will forward them by parcel post as early as possible, together with the enclosed receipt form, duly signed.

We note your kind offer to report to us any interesting medical or scientific items you may meet with in future. We are also open to purchase prints or pictures as well as books on these subjects, and anything you send on approval will be promptly dealt with.

We are,

Faithfully yours,
