AT ST. GEORGE'S CHAPEL.

On arrival at the chapel, the Chief of the Imperial General Staff, Adjutant-General Master of Ordnance and Quartermaster-General, aides-de-camp, together with Major-General A. E. Codrington and his staff; will range themselves on either side of the steps leading to the west door of the chapel.

The Pursuivants, Heralds, Lyon and Ulster King of Arms will move up the nave of the chapel, ranging themselves on either side of the entrance to the choir, and Garter King of Arms will pass into the choir to be in readiness to pronounce the styles of his late Majesty.

At the west door of the chapel the royal body will be received by:—

The Archbishop of Canterbury,

The Archbishop of York,

The Bishop of Winchester, Prelate of the Order of the Garter,

The Bishop of Oxford, Chancellor of the Order of the Garter,

The Dean of Windsor, Registrar of the Order of the Garter, with the canons, minor canons, lay clerks, and choristers of St. George's Chapel.

The procession will move up the nave headed by the choir and clergy, and the opening sentences of the Burial Service will be chanted by the choir.

The Gold Sticks and White Staves will proceed on either side of this procession into the choir.

Behind the coffin, which will be immediately preceded by the Earl Marshal, the Lord Steward, and the Lord Chamberlain, will walk the King, the other members of the Royal Family, the royal representatives, and the remainder of the procession; those who have ranged themselves outside the west door falling in after the suites of the special envoys.

His Majesty the King, Chief Mourner, will stand at the Head of the Coffin.

The Lord Chamberlain of his Majesty's Household will take his place at the foot of the coffin.

The lesson will be read by the Bishop of Winchester.

The sentence, "I heard a voice from Heaven" will be read by the Dean of Windsor, and after the Lord's Prayer, the anthem, "How blest are they," will be sung.

The prayers will be read by the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Sir Alfred Scott-Gatty, Garter Principal King of Arms, will pronounce the Styles of his late Most Sacred Majesty of Blessed Memory:—

"Thus it hath pleased Almighty God to take out of this transitory life unto His Divine Mercy, the late Most High, Most Mighty, and Most Excellent Monarch, Edward VII., by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, and Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

"Let us humbly beseech Almighty God to bless with long life, health, and honour, and all worldly happiness, the Most High, Most Mighty, and Most Excellent Monarch, Our Sovereign Lord George, now, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, and Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter."

"God Save the King."

The Anthem, "Blest are the departed," will then be sung, and the Archbishop of Canterbury will pronounce the Benediction.

His Majesty's Bodyguard of the Hon. Corps of Gentlemen-at-Arms will be on duty in the choir of the Chapel, the Yeomen of the Guard being on duty in the Nave.

Sixty-eight minute guns will be fired in the Long Walk at Windsor as the procession leaves Windsor Station.
