CENSOR, CHIEF POSTAL

1916

H.M.M.

16 December 1916.

Dear Sir,

The director of the University of Lausanne has asked me to send him copies of the hand-book to this Museum. I am sending them herewith as I sent the one to be forwarded to Spain some time ago, and trust you will allow them to go through.

Thanking you in anticipation,

Faithfully yours,

C.J.S.T.

The Chief Postal Censor,

Strand House,

Carey Street, W.C.

6th November 1916.

Sir,

With reference to your letter of 19th October, I am directed to inform you that, if you will send the two copies of your book, which you desire to despatch, ready packed stamped and addressed inside an outer cover addressed to the Chief Postal Censor, they will be forwarded to their destinations.

The outer cover should bear the number of this letter and need not be stamped.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

H. L. Henderson Lt.
Chief Postal Censor.

Dear Sir,

I am desirous of forwarding a copy of the handbook of this Museum which I send herewith, to the Alcalde of the Municipal Museum, San Sebastian, Spain, in return for his kindness in sending us a replica of an obstetrical chair to this Museum.

Will you kindly let me know if we may have permission to do this?

Faithfully yours,

C.J.S.T.

The Chief Postal Censor,
War Office, Whitehall.

Printed matter exported by post to foreign destinations is subject to restrictions in regard to which enquiry should be made of The Chief Postal Censor, War Office; and printed matter exported otherwise than by post is subject to similar restrictions as to which enquiry should be made of the Secretary of H.M. Customs and Excise, Lower Thames Street, London, E.C.

Any further communication should be addressed to—

THE SECRETARY,
at the address given opposite.

The following letters and number must be quoted:—

Gentlemen,

With reference to your application of the 9th inst. No. — for permission to export

Handbook to Spain.

I am instructed by the Director of the War Trade Department to inform you that at present these goods may be shipped to the port named in your application without licence from this Department, provided the necessary Customs formalities are complied with. Your attention is, however, called to the fact that frequent changes are made in the prohibited list, details of which are duly announced both in the London Gazette and in the Board of Trade Journal.

I am to add that this letter must not be regarded as giving permission to manufacture goods in cases where that course is necessary under the Regulations of the Ministry of Munitions.

I am,

Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servant,

N. J. Highmore.
