Dear Sir,

I have acknowledged the Receipt of your letter of the 25th April, which I was unable to answer earlier.

I shall have great pleasure in letting you have the Geyser & other Opera Glass Camera & Magazine, when I get the Notice that you say you'll send me in due course.

You have however, misunderstood me, as being having promised to loan the Photos in Natural

Potter

On the contrary, I stated, that I was had a very unpleasant experience in this connection being obliged to recover a print from the Editor of a Photographic Paper, by the assistance of a Solicitor. I had determined in future to keep them in my own possession. I am sorry to be dissatisfied in this matter.

I should like to see a substitute if possible, I will, if you wish, send you Micro. Photo. Lays of unknown objects. (Rough) for your news
